

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Centre for Interprofessional Education
Transforming care through collaboration

UHN

Toronto General
Toronto Western
Princess Margaret
Toronto Rehab
Michener Institute

Now Available on Films On Demand: Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care Five-Part Video Series

FILMS ON DEMAND

Home > Search Results > Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care

SERIES
Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care

5 Titles | University Health Network | About

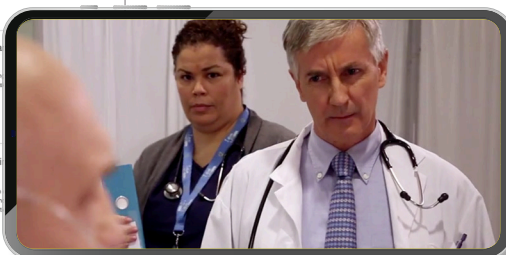

Titles in this Series:

- Part 1A: Breaking Bad News—Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care (Full Video) 01:43
This scenario highlights an example in which the health care providers are not appropriately prepared for the family meeting and deliver care information to the patient/family that creates grief and conflict.
© 2020 University Health Network
Preview | Share | Add to | Standards | Resources
- Part 1B: The Family Meeting Preparation—Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care (Full Video) 02:17
This scenario highlights how a pre-brief assesses the health care team effectively in communicating patient/family information and concerns, and in collectively preparing a cohesive plan to deliver care information to the patient/family.
© 2020 University Health Network
Preview | Share | Add to | Standards | Resources
- Part 1C: The Family Meeting—Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care (Full Video) 04:48
This scenario highlights a good family meeting with effective communication among team members, when implemented in any setting, help staff to check in with one another and to fully respond to the family.
© 2020 University Health Network
Preview | Share | Add to | Standards | Resources
- Part 2: Team Huddle—Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care (Full Video) 04:24
This scenario highlights the importance of process and communication in the team huddle, when implemented in any setting, help staff to check in with one another and to fully respond to the family.
© 2020 University Health Network
Preview | Share | Add to | Standards | Resources
- Part 3: Team Safety Debrief—Collaboration and Teamwork in Health Care (Full Video) 04:20
This scenario highlights an example in which different team members bring perspectives on a long-term care resident fall. The team safety debrief meeting is led by the manager. This clip highlights elements such as role clarity, communication, team functioning, and collaborative leadership.
© 2020 University Health Network
Preview | Share | Add to | Standards | Resources

This five-part series of video case studies offers health care professionals a valuable tool to aid in collaborative and interprofessional care discussions and learning forums. Facilitation guides are available for each video.

Series includes: Part 1A: Breaking Bad News • Part 1B: The Family Meeting Preparation • Part 1C: The Family Meeting • Part 2: Team Huddle • Part 3: Team Safety Debrief

Total run time: 20 minutes. ©2020

View it on the
NEW Films On Demand App!

This series can be purchased with 3-year streaming rights or is available to subscribers of the Films On Demand Health & Medicine Collection. Not available in Canada.

Contact us for more information!