

Collaborative Change Leadership™

A Certificate Program for Leaders in Health and Health Education

September 2026 - June 2027

Virtual Program

This advanced leadership Program is aimed at senior and high potential leaders in health care and health education. Grounded in leadership, change theories, processes and practices, this certificate Program is designed to integrate unique learning approaches to real-time challenges.

The purpose of the CCL Program is to develop a powerful community of leaders who transform health systems and create a more just and sustainable world for all.

Prerequisites

- Leaders across health and health education
- Support of your organizational sponsor to participate in the program
- A capstone initiative that is identified as a priority within your organization, system or community and engages the organization, system or community
- Teams of two or more participating in the program required

Program Outcomes

By the end of the program, participants will:

1. Model and exemplify collaborative change leadership in all facets of their professional work.
2. Use appreciative inquiry principles to engage people and systems in co-creating meaningful and sustainable change.
3. Design and implement an emergent change strategy for an organization, system, community, or inter-sectorial capstone initiative.
4. Personally and professional transform through deepened self-awareness.
5. Define their unique contribution as a member of a powerful community of collaborative change leaders.
